28 IBSSA ARTIST NEIGHBORS ARE FOUNDATION OF ART FESTIVAL

The 2015 Sun Circle Art Festival (SCAF) will be held on Saturday, March 14th from 11am to 5pm. The foundation of SCAF is the dedication of 28 artists who live in our Indian Beach-Sapphire Shores (IBSS) neighborhood.

Sapphire Shores Park, on Sun Circle Drive in the heart of our historic IBSS, is the site of the 2015 annual SCAF. The transformation of the usually quiet area will begin as early as 8am with the bustle of volunteers assembled by Monica Neligon.

Thank your neighbors whose names are in bold on the Artist List on page 2. This is a true family event, including IBSS young artists Grant Burroughs and Lindsay Jennings.

A strong group of 78 juried artists, representing fine arts, crafts, and performances, will show and sell. James Gibson, an original member of the Florida Highwaymen, will return. The entire Sapphire Shores Park area – from North Shore to South Shore – will be set with artists’ tents and a performance stage.

Jane Nutter Johnson, Event Chair, began engaging the amazing group of artists during the 2014 Art Festival, and she continued relentlessly until every inch of ground was committed.

Everyone will enjoy the delicacies of the three food trucks, while enjoying the music of IBSS’s own Carol Pettengill and Jonathan Pettus. New performers will be young musicians, Sarasota’s own puppeteer Doctor Nik, storyteller Sharon Fitzgerald, and a flamenco dance troupe. Young festival attendees will enjoy the park’s playground. You will know the 2015 SCAF is coming when you see the Yarn Bombing of the park’s

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YARD SALE

The annual IBSSA yard sale was held on January 24th and January 25th, 2015, with 55 sanctioned households participating. The rain completely stopped and the sun shone through the clouds around 10am, but the early morning shoppers were roaming the neighborhood before the 9am start time. The number of shoppers grew as the day continued and hundreds shopped looking for items to buy; searching for just the right item. The great neighborhood “vibe” was felt at the event as neighbors interacted with each other throughout the day.

The 2016 yard sale will be held on January 29th and 30th, so start collecting for next year’s yard sale – the best sale in all of Sarasota!

• MONICA NELIGON, YARD SALE CHAIR

FENG SHUI FOR EVERY DAY or Why participating in the IBSSA Neighborhood Yard Sale each year does more than put a little cash in your pocket.

I suspect many of you, if you think of Feng Shui at all, think it too foreign and complicated to approach. I have learned that at least one basic Feng Shui principal is really quite simple: Holding onto objects due to guilt or fear creates stagnant, unhealthy energy.

Have you kept something you don’t want because it was a gift or maybe one day in the distant future it may be needed? The Feng Shui principle above gave me the freedom and courage to rid my closets of unused gifts, household items, heirloom table cloths, unworn clothes, and grandma’s antique clock.

Here is an example: One of our IBSS neighbors, Kate, had all her mother’s Stickley mission style furniture put in storage when her mother spent several years in an end-of-life care facility. Kate mentioned to me that she was still paying for the furniture to be kept in storage on the opposite side of the country three years after her mom passed away. She didn’t want to face all the work involved in researching each piece to learn its full value and then spend the time and energy needed to make sure she sold it for every penny of its true worth. She also felt guilty about selling her mother’s things.

My feng shui-based advice to Kate was to imagine this scenario: There are good people out there who love and appreciate mission style furniture and have been pining for years to score a genuine Stickley piece. Alas, every piece found was unaffordable. BUT! Through Kate’s willingness to part with the furniture for a fraction of its value, these someones are thrilled. They are proudly displaying their unbelievable find as a focal point in their homes. The pieces are no longer locked unappreciated in a dark warehouse and their owner stuck with the storage bill.

Kate is a hero for making someone happy; she has cash in her pocket and is free from feelings of guilt. Through her willingness to let go, someone else is experiencing joy and Kate is experiencing relief and freedom.

If you missed the yard sale this year, have the courage to add it to your calendar next year. I am only half joking when I say you may become a better person for it.

Eva Katz, Owner – Contact: 941-359-9500

How long has Sunnyside Cafe been open?

We opened on December 1, 2014

Are you affiliated with the Oakridge Apartments? We are not affiliated with Oakridge Apartments. We just share the same address.

What do you like about the location of Sunnyside? We love being on the North Trail. We are perfectly sandwiched between The Ringling Museum and surrounding colleges, as well as the ever prospering downtown.

Were you in the restaurant business prior? Yes, we have all been in the restaurant industry for some time now and continue to be.

Tell me about the Cafe.

Sunnyside Cafe is a family-run breakfast and lunch restaurant, focused on bringing fresh and delicious food to Sarasota. We believe that no matter what your dietary lifestyle encompasses, homemade recipes should bring family and friends together to enjoy each others' company and satisfy your taste buds. At Sunnyside Cafe, we strive to support our community through local farmers, small businesses, community involvement, and outreach. It is not just about serving healthy alternatives for breakfast and lunch, it is also about the love we have for Sarasota and our belief that a strong community is a happy community.

What are some of your customers favorite menu items? Some favorites include our Sunnyside Burger, Vegan Chickpea Pancakes, Sunnyside Eggs Benedict, The Brave One Omelet, Hungarian Goulash, and our weekend Lobster Roll Special.

Do you have any specialty drink items? On the weekends, we create different mimosa infusions, such as jalapeño, strawberry, and watermelon.

What is the price range on your menu items? Our menu items average around $10-$13 per person. We also offer drinks such as wine, beer, mimosa, or fresh squeezed orange juice.

Is your menu available online? Yes;
Sunnysidecafesrq.com

Do you offer take-out? Yes, give us a call at 941-359-9500. We are always happy to offer take-out.

Have you encountered any challenges in starting and running a restaurant? There are always challenges on any new endeavor. Thankfully, we are all in this together and a strong support system makes any task achievable.

Do you take reservations for large parties or groups? Yes, for parties of eight or more we prefer to have some notice so we have time to prepare. We are happy to accommodate any type of celebration, just email to info@sunnysidecafesrq.com or call us at 941-359-9500.

Do you offer any type of catering? We do offer catering, again with some notice. We are flexible with a catering menu, because everyone wants something different. We are willing to work with everyone's ideas.

What additional information would you like the IBSS neighbors to know about Sunnyside Cafe? We will be opening in the evening, once a month, with happy hour, live music, and a night-time menu. Stay tuned for more information!

We also want to thank everyone for supporting us; for telling friends and family to come on over and try our food. Without the locals, we could not make our thoughts, ideas, and aspirations become a reality.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH NEWS

As the new year begins, a renewed appreciation comes for being part of such a caring community. Over the years, we have strived to deter crime by becoming more aware and have extended boundaries of concern to reach beyond our own personal space. This ongoing commitment by neighbors to report suspicious, criminal, and dangerous situations is invaluable and, once again, contributed to a reduction of crime within our Indian Beach-Sapphire Shores neighborhood last year.

The Sarasota Police Department reported a city-wide decline in total offenses and an increase in felony arrests for the year 2014. The statistics indicate that identifying and apprehending criminals result in less crime. There has also been an emphasis on crime prevention through detailed crime analysis. A focus on known troubled areas is routine, however, predicting where potential "hot spots" may be brewing is accomplished by intelligence led policing. Monitoring such things as increased calls for service, escalating incidents of crime, observed suspicious activity, calls to the hotline, etc. help police determine where the problem areas and makers are.

Lawbreakers must understand that the law-abiding public will not be easily victimized and will never turn a blind eye to their illicit activities. Working together with law enforcement, we will continue to rid criminals from our streets, better ensure the safety of our families, and preserve the beauty and wonderfully unique qualities of our neighborhood and city.

If you have any questions or want to learn more about the IBSSA Neighborhood Watch Program, contact Debbie Muller at 941/ 355-5743.
