GENERAL MEETING WAS A HUGE SUCCESS!!

If you missed seeing the lovely Sudakoff Center on April 10th and hearing the enlightening speeches of our four guests, we are truly sorry. 164 members did make it, and your hard working board truly appreciated their effort. A good time was had by all. The refreshment committee, chaired by Norma Kwenski did have to rush out for more goodies, as we had anticipated approximately 80; but, we were all thrilled by the full house capacity crowd. Ron Lerner and others had to go to the storeroom for additional chairs. This is the largest crowd I can ever recall at a general meeting. We wish we knew the reason, and we would do it for all our future meetings. Was it the program, the place, the day of the week, the newsletter, the signs, the personal telephone calls, the distribution of the Asolo tickets, or what? If you have the opportunity to talk to one of the board, please let them know your reason as we'd like to continue to serve your needs.

"ANYBODY WANT A DUCK?" Sound familiar? It does if you are old enough to know about Joe E. Penner. That was his favorite line. Now it's a plea of two of our members, Marcia and Robert Judson. They are volunteers at the The Pelican Man's Bird Sanctuary on City Island as are some other of our members. The following letter was submitted to our newsletter from Marcia... Wanted: Homes for Ducks!

Spring is an especially busy time at The Bird Sanctuary as many baby birds are brought in or picked up by the rescue trucks. Volunteers feed these babies every two hours and some grow to adulthood and are eventually released. When the duck are grown they need to be placed in appropriate homes - near fresh water ponds, lakes, canals or inlets. If any of you can help by finding homes for friendly ducks, please call Bob & Marcia Judson at 954-8831.

If any of you have not visited The Sanctuary lately, you should come out to City Island any day between 10 and 4 to see what's going on. The burrowing owls have laid three eggs, there's a brand new cormorant cage with pool, "Angie" the crow still calls out "no fair" and the pelicans are as amusing as ever.

ASOLO TICKETS ALL GONE!!!!

ALL 200 HAD BEEN REQUESTED BY APRIL 21ST. If for any reason you have a change of plans and will not be able to attend the theater with us on Sunday, June 2nd in the evening, please call Eileen at 355-2621, as she has a waiting list of neighbors who didn't get their requests in early enough. We certainly hope you will get to enjoy your tickets; but, if anything happens let's pass the tickets on to our own members, as they are the one's Asolo intended to use them. We don't want any empty seats either. THANKS GOOD NEIGHBOR ASOLO.

FREE TICKETS!!!! IBSSA MEMBERS ONLY

SARASOTA MUSIC FESTIVAL - FLORIDA WEST COAST SYMPHONY, . 27TH SEASON.

While we were talking after the general meeting, good neighbor Paul Wolfe asked if I felt that IBSSA would appreciate a block of tickets to the opening night performance on June 7th at 8:15 at the Van Wezel.

Of course I jumped at the opportunity afforded to us, called Gretchen Serrie, the Executive Director, and she promptly mailed me information regarding the June 7th concert. The first selections are an Overture on Hebrew Themes by PROKOFIEFF, (Paul Wolfe being one of the violinists), a viola, cello and piano.

The second selection is a sextet in Bb K.270 by Mozart, which includes an oboe, bassoon, horn and student participants.

The third selection is a sextet for piano and strings by Mendelssohn: violin, two violas, cello, bass and piano.

Last is a trio in c Op. 101 by Brahms with a violin, cello and piano.

I personally am looking forward to a delightful evening of excellent music. Once again, it will have to be a first come first served basis, and your officers have already requested theirs, so call Eileen at 355-2621. Remember, I only have 100.

TID-BITS FROM THE NEIGHBORS If there are any knife collectors in the IBSSA area, I will be glad to share ideas. I am a former employee of W.R. Case & Sons Cutlery Company and write stories and knife articles. I have also written a book on Case and Collecting. Jim Giles 351-8748

PICNIC IDEAS??????

1. Anyone interested in working on any committee? Welcoming committee, entertainment, games, mixers, food, drinks, clean-up (now that's a glamorous committee) well it all has to be done.
2. Date - Do you think it should be later in the year? November perhaps? Do you think it should be on a Saturday or Sunday?
3. Time - Shorter, longer, or just right?

PICNIC DATE: October 26, 1991 3:00-6:00 Caples Campus

Request for baby-sitters.

Any more interest in BRIDGE MARATHON??? We've had one couple move away, and we need more, It's fun. Eileen and Gene Linxwiler finished first, and Carolyn Deardorf and Eleanor Howell came in second during our last session of games.
